

Learning languages one of the most important things in our world. Because of it, I agree with this quotation.

We can tell where people come from because of their native language. There is the national language in each country. Also, language tells where people are going. Language skills are very helpful in our life. If you want to travel around the world, you have to communicate with people from different cultures. So you should have some knowledge about languages. On the other hand, &

Languages can help you in your future career. If you know foreign languages, you will have more opportunities in your job.

For example, my sister enjoys learning new languages and practising them with others. So, when she had gotten her job, these knowledges helped her to become successful. She was working with some large international companies and made excellent career. She was very happy about it. I couldn't say that she was just lucky because she had been working really hard to achieve it.

In conclusion I would like to say that languages play the main role in our everyday life and job. Everybody should learn new language or improve their skills. These knowledges will help them in the future
