I want to make a not big commenting about quotation "Be the change that you wish to see in the world." I think that we all need one universal language for all planet.

In my opinion we need language like this because we have a big amount of problems with understanding each other across whole world. If we all would have one language, we would not have any silly situations with understanding what we all thinking and talking about. Also this thing open us a whole world to explore and travelling, because we will never think like "Oh I want to visit Spain, but I cannot do this, because I don't know Spanish. I will not understand there anything."

To tell the truth I also have some examples in my life to illustrate why we need universal language. In my early age when I was six I had one friend and he could spoke English only, but I knew only Russian. But we still found a way to talk about anything we wanted. We created our own language. Our language was based half of Russian and half on English languages. Nowadays I still remember this funny language and even can talk a bit on him.

At the end I want to say one more time that we need to understand each other. This is the most important thing in the world in my opinion.
