Do you know that Mahatma Gandhi said once? "Be the change that you wish to see in the world" - even nowadays we hear this quotation. It means quotation remind us that we all have ability to change or do something positive for our community and world. I will prove this quotation.

I consider this quotation can inspire a lot of people. For example in my life street is always dirty. Somebody throw trash there and it's really bad, because it make bad smell. Moreover we can not walk with our pets because it is so terrible. Once my family decided to clean our street, asking neighbours to take part. And we were done it! We just do it ourself, and now our street is the best. If we need to change something, we will do it ourselves! Nobody can make something for fun.

In Alexander Sergeevich Pushkin as an example. He always knew that Russian poetry writing is not popular and he wants to show Russian literature to whole world. By his works foreigners find out about Russian culture. And Pushkin change it! He and his friend popularize our culture. They wanted to do it, they made it.

We noticed that something is not good, and we want to change it so do it! It depends of ourselves. Always remember: "Be the change that you wish to see in the world".
